

HANNAH KEELEY

PSYCHOLOGY + SPIRITUALITY = TRANSFORMATION

Hannah Keeley is a bestselling author, entrepreneur, and master life coach. She is considered America's #1 Mom Coach and has been featured on Today show, Good Morning America, Fox and Friends, 700 Club, the Wall Street Journal, and more. She has built several multi-million dollar businesses and even made it to the Forbes 5000 Fastest Growing Businesses in America.

Hannah is also a highly sought-after speaker, presenting for companies while also appearing in prominent churches around the world.

As a homeschooling mom of seven, Hannah was deep in debt, surrounded by clutter, and riddled with depression and anxiety. As a previous behavioral therapist, she had to be her first client. She discovered powerful psychological principles and fueled them with her faith in God to create significant and sustainable transformation in her life. This led to her developing the only global online university for moms—Mom Mastery University. Following that, she created Covenant Coach Academy, the most robust faith-based training platform for life coaches.

Hannah also has a weekly show—the Hannah Keeley Show, where she walks viewers and listeners through strategies to create lives that are blessed like crazy!

Hannah is the author of Crazy Blessed: 9 Steps to a Not-So-Normal Life, Mom Fog: 8 Steps to Overcoming Mom Fatigue Syndrome, and—coming in the fall of '23—Royal Family: Building a Family with the Faith of Abraham, the Wealth of Solomon, and the Love of Jesus.

Hannah is a graduate of Furman University, a board-certified life coach, and lives in Richmond, VA with her amazing husband, two dogs, and any kids that happen to be home at the time.

A great fit for events and services focused on:

- Faith development
